NOTICE

ISSUANCE OF DETERMINATION OF NONSIGNIFICANCE

After review of the environmental checklist and related environmental documents, the King County Department of Natural Resources and Parks has determined that the Island Center Forest Pilot Project will not have a probable significant adverse impact on the environment. Therefore, under State Environmental Policy Act (SEPA) rules the King County Department of Natural Resources and Parks has issued a Determination of Nonsignificance (DNS) on Wednesday, September 14, 2011. Copies of the DNS are available at no charge from Connie Blumen, King County Natural Resources and Parks, at 201 South Jackson Street, Ste. 700, Seattle, WA 98104-3856; 206-263-6371. The environmental checklist, DNS and other information are also available on the King County Parks website: <http://www.kingcounty.gov/recreation/parks/about/notices.aspx>. The public is invited to comment on this DNS by submitting written comments no later than 4:30 P.M., Wednesday, September 28, 2011, to the address listed in the upper left corner of this notice, attention Kevin Brown, Director, Parks and Recreation Division.
